

To whom it may concern:

We recommend approval of the proposed addition to the Gentiles property. As purchasers of their former home in hill east we can attest to their care and love of their previous home. Their family works tirelessly to improve the corner where their current house sits in hill east and the entire community has benefited from its beautification. We have seen their plans and have zero concerns.

Thanks,

Anton and Kaela Severin

1412 C St SE