

Statement of Existing and Intended Use

The subject property is currently improved with a building which has been used for commercial purposes. The Applicant is proposing to construct an addition on top of the existing building footprint and provide seven (7) residential units.