

Statement of Existing and Intended Use

The existing use of the structure is a two-family rental property, two-story, semi-detached structure. The intended use will be single-family renovated semi-detached structure. The enclosure of the existing rear second-floor covered porch is intended to provide additional living space.