RA, LEED GA

Project Architect

June earned her bachelor's degree with honors at the University of Illinois; Urbana Champaign. While there, she spent a year studying abroad in Versailles, France. While studying abroad in Europe, she travelled to over 20 European cities to expand her knowledge in architecture and art. After University of Illinois, she continued her graduate studies at Washington University in St. Louis and received a dual master's degrees in Architecture and Urban Design. During her time at Washington University, she studied abroad in Buenos Aires and Seoul to explore the relationship between the city and architecture in urban context. At Washington University, she also received prestigious Steedman Travelling Fellowship Grant to travel to Cambodia and Vietnam to study the floating settlements. Her degree in urban design greatly influenced her thinking about architecture. Before joining ODA, she mainly worked on exterior design of large scale commercial and residential projects throughout the city and abroad. .
