FOR THE PURPOSE OF CONSIDERING THE FOLLOWING:

CASE NO. 18-16 (Text and Map Amendments to Change Certain Zone Names – Mapping Phase)

THIS CASE IS OF INTEREST TO ALL ANCs

On September 7, 2018, the Office of Zoning received a report, which also served as a prehearing filing, from the District of Columbia Office of Planning (“OP”) proposing amendments to the Zoning Map to change the names of certain zones. The proposed zone name changes would link a common base zone to a geographic identifier similar to the zoning overlays formerly used in the 1958 regulation zone names. The relevant chapters reflecting the new zone names would be reorganized such that the development standards would be located within the base zone chapter and only those standards that are different would be detailed in the modified zone chapter. The implementing text amendments will be submitted by OP through a subsequent report if the Zoning Commission takes proposed action on these map amendments. The Zoning Commission will then determine whether to set down the proposed text for a hearing. Ultimately, the Commission would simultaneously consider whether to take final action on the proposed map and text amendments. On September 17, 2018, the Commission voted to set down the proposed map amendments for a public hearing.

The following amendments to the Zoning Map are proposed.
