Hello,

I am a resident of Woodley Park. It has recently been brought to my attention that your Zoning Commission is considering an amendment to the Zoning Map that will likely curtail the capacity and pace of home-building in DC. This is deeply concerning considering the ongoing housing shortage DC is facing, as well as the unequal impact this shortage is having on DC's most marginalized communities.

Please re-consider and reject this amendment. Instead, consider new efforts to accelerate the pace and capacity of home-building in DC, especially in Wards 1, 2 and 3. Thanks,

Eamonn deLacy
