Chun Lam (the “Applicant”) filed an application (the “Application”) on December 21, 2021, pursuant to the Zoning Regulations (Title 11 of the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations, Zoning Regulations of 2016, to which all references are made unless otherwise specified) requesting that the Zoning Commission for the District of Columbia (the “Commission”) grant relief for Lots 65, 66, 827, 829, and 830 in Square 653 (the “Property”). The Subject Property is currently comprised of five separate lots with a total of 7,131 square feet of land area. It is located in the CG-2 zone.

The Applicant submits this application pursuant to Subtitle K, § 512 of the District of Columbia Zoning Regulations, which requires Commission design review of properties with frontage on South Capitol Street. The Applicant also seeks flexibility pursuant to Subtitle X, § 603.1 for relief from the court requirements (under Subtitle K § 502.9).

The Property is located between the Buzzard Point and Navy Yard neighborhoods, directly west across South Capitol Street from Nationals Park. The Project provides significant housing opportunities in a growing area of the city. Additionally, the Project provides the retention of the façade of the existing row houses on the Property, as well as affordable housing opportunities.

The Applicant is proposing to combine the lots and construct a mixed-use building consisting of 49 residential units, as well as retail and office space, along S Capitol Street, S.W. and N Street, S.W. (the “Project”). The Project proposes approximately 3,500 square feet of retail space on the ¹ This case was previously scheduled for February 28, 2022. To accommodate the ANC's schedule, a postponement request was made by the Applicant.
