Madame Secretary, Commissioners â

It is so very important to postpone any vote on the 1617 U Street re-zoning proposal until the impact of the many possibilities have been expertly researched, thoroughly studied, and discussed adequately with the public.

I am steadfastly against:

- Up-Zoning of ANY Property within the historic Federal Old City Line that was laid out by President George Washington, Pierre-Charles L'Enfant, and Benjamin Banneker.
- the 1617 U Street re-zoning proposal is within the Federal Old City Line.
- Giving away or selling ANY Public Property to Private Developers
- The only variation is that of a Public-Private partnering for the present and continuing economic benefit to the City and People of DC.

Thank you. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Elaine. M. Sarao, Ph.D.
